A Message from the President

The Fall is coming and with it comes cooler days, cooler nights, beautiful colors and above all "Fall's Finest Festival" ... the COOSA VALLEY FAIR. The members of the Coosa Valley Fair Association and the Rome Exchange Club are hard at work preparing for you to have all the thrills you've come to enjoy over the years. The Coosa Valley Fair has plenty to enjoy regardless of whether you are young or young at heart. Wade Shows, the nation's largest carnival provider, will bring close to 40 rides and a host of challenging games. Wade shows is known for their safe and exciting rides which thrill both young and old. Once again Camp Carousel Petting Zoo will be located in the livestock area and Michael Frisbee, magician and comedian, will entertain visitors to the Village Building. This year's feature shows include Jurassic Park Dinosaur Adventure and the Space Adventure Thrill Show. Times vary for each event so be sure to check the current schedules when you arrive at the Fairgrounds. Both Rome City and Floyd County Schools will provide art and pottery to be displayed along with the local talent of our amateurs and professionals in the Art and Photography Building. Everyone in Northwest Georgia is encouraged to submit for a chance to win ribbons and cash prizes. Our Community Building is always filled to the brim with local talents displaying their wares and also competing for ribbons cash premiums. The building will come alive with colorful flowers, canned goods, baked goods, local vegetables, quilts, garments, and toys all handiwork of your friends and neighbors The Special Events building will come to life Tuesday night with the sounds of the spirit competition from local school cheerleaders and students as they compete for the best spirit award. After Tuesday the Special Events Building will feature the beauty of local young ladies as they compete the rest of the week in various Pageants which has a place for all age contestants. Along with our magician the Village Building will be filled with local vendors displaying a variety of goods and services which you can take advantage of in our area.

You are sure to enjoy yourself with each of these opportunities. So, after you have enjoyed the rides and tested your skills with the games what's left for you? FAIR FOOD! You'll want to overindulge in all your favorites ... especially cotton candy, candy apples and funnel cakes! We haven't forgotten, we began and continue to be an Agriculture Fair at heart. We are making a change this year which we believe will greatly improve our Livestock Shows whether you are competing or a spectator. The Livestock Shows will be held on Saturday and Sunday, September 30th and October 1st. This will give the public a better opportunity to see the shows and the competitors a chance to show with less stress on moving their animals to Perry for the State Show. Another benefit for the spectators is no admission fee will be charged on these two days so come and enjoy. On behalf of the entire Coosa Valley Fair Association and the Exchange Club of Rome I would like to personally invite you to this year's Fair which begins on October 3rd and runs through October 7th. Bring your family, join your friends and neighbors, and enjoy the rides, games, exhibits, entertainment and food at the 74th Annual Coosa Valley Fair.

History of the Coosa Valley Fair

The Coosa Valley Fair marks the beginning of Fall for the residents of the Coosa Valley area including Northwest Georgia and Northeast Alabama. Known as Fall's Finest Festival, the Fair has been sponsored by the Exchange Club of Rome since its founding in 1949.

Who Runs the Fair?

For over seven decades, the Coosa Valley Fair has been sponsored as a service project by the Exchange Club of Rome, Georgia. The Fair is actually managed by a separate organization called the Coosa Valley Fair Association. All members of the Rome Exchange Club are voting members of the association, but the day to day management and planning is left in the hands of an elected Coosa Valley Fair Board of Directors.

The Board meets at least once-a-month, year round and controls all aspects of the Fair as well as managing how the fairgrounds are used for other activities the rest of the year.

As you can imagine, putting on an event with the size and scope of the Coosa Valley Fair takes highly detailed planning and precise management. It is important to note at this point that ALL of this work is performed by volunteers. The entire board and all of the officers are community leaders who believe in the Coosa Valley Fair enough to volunteer countless hours to make it a success year after year. We are not aware of any other fair of our size which operates completely without paid management staff.

Who Benefits from Proceeds?

The Coosa Valley Fair is a completely non-profit organization sponsored by the Exchange Club of Rome, Georgia. As might be expected, proceeds from the Fair are funneled back through that organization's projects of service to the community.

A primary beneficiary is The Exchange Club Family Resource Center, a family-focused community service agency that provides education and support services to families in Floyd and surrounding counties in order to strengthen the parenting and life skills of the parents and prevent child abuse and neglect within these families. We are proud to be a small part in the spectacular success of that fine organization.

Other Exchange Club programs of service run the gambit. See the Rome Exchange Club web site for details. The Fair Association contributes directly to a number of worthwhile organizations. As one example, for a number of years, we have made a contribution to each school in the Floyd County and Rome school systems. These moneys are designated to purchase supplies for each school's art program.

Don't forget the people who enter personal exhibits ranging from livestock to flowers. In addition to the recognition and the opportunity to showcase their talent, we pay out over $20,000.00 each year in premiums and ribbons.

Many organizations and individuals benefit directly by participation in the Fair. As you walk around our midway, notice how many local individuals and organizations are vendors. The local food booths, for example, are all operated by organizations who depend on the Fair to provide a significant part of their annual budgets. Other community organizations gain valuable recognition by building community exhibits.

Through our sponsorship program, local businesses are beginning to recognize the benefits which can be derived by association with the Coosa Valley Fair.

Perhaps the largest group of beneficiaries of the Fair are the many visitors who pass through our gates each year. We promise to do our best to provide for each of them an unforgettable experience well worth the price of admission.

Our facilities aren't used for just one week in October...

Coosa Valley Fairgrounds provides the ideal location for a wide range of activities. Complete, modern meeting facilities with on-site professional catering available if needed contribute to making our facilities unmatched anywhere in the Coosa Valley area.

The Palladium is home for civic, and professional organizations, with amenities for training classes and other business meetings. With food services ranging from snacks to burgers and fries to the most demanding cuisine, We routinely host formal wedding events, class reunions and many other festive occasions.

Rodeos, Circuses, Concerts, Professional Wrestling and other large activities have found the fairgrounds the ideal venue. We can accommodate large crowds with such events but we regularly provide space for much smaller events like company picnics, car shows, even a staging area for the Girl Scout Cookie Sale.

The Exchange Club of Rome

ROME, GA

The Rome Exchange Club was chartered in 1936 and is still going strong today serving the community through many service projects including child abuse prevention. Upon joining, our members automatically become members of the Coosa Valley Fair Association which is responsible for bringing the fair to our area each year. Exchange Club members are instrumental in running the fair.

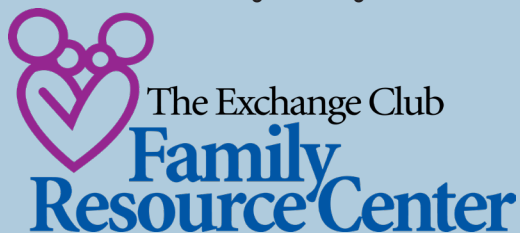

In 1991, through collaboration with public and private agencies, government, schools, courts, law enforcement, medical personnel and the community, the Exchange Club Family Resource Center was opened. The Family Resource Center provides education and support services to families in Floyd and surrounding counties and seeks to prevent child abuse and neglect. We are also the local contact agency for Toys for Tots, helping provide a brighter Christmas season for hundreds of families in a tri-county area..

Our Mission: Exchange members are a group of men and women working to make America a better place to live through one national project, Prevention of Child Abuse, and other community service projects.

Though Child Abuse Prevention had been the national project of Exchange Clubs across the nation since 1979, it was not until the 1988 Mid-Year Exchange Club Leadership Conference in Macon, Georgia that this project caught the attention of several Rome Exchange Club leaders---Buck Trott (then Exchange Club of Rome President), Lynn Dempsey (President-Elect/Vice-President), and Stephen Patton (Secretary). The idea of opening a child abuse prevention center in Rome captured the hearts and minds of the three. "It was the main conversation on our drive home from Macon---really, the only thing we talked about for several hours", said Stephen Patton. "We just believed in this and felt that it could make a difference in our community," said Lynn Dempsey, "Buck Trott was determined that we do it right." With the strong backing of other "thoughtful and committed citizens" of the Exchange Club of Rome, a task force was appointed in June 1989 to explore the concept. Katie Dempsey was appointed to lead the effort.

The Task Force really did their homework---from talking with several other Child Abuse Prevention Centers to interviewing professionals to researching statistics. The Task Force asked the community: "What are the gaps?", "Do we really have an issue with abuse/neglect in our community?", and "Are you willing to support a child abuse prevention center?" With a resounding "Yes!", the support of the community and other agencies, as well as that of the Exchange Club of Rome, the Exchange Club Family Resource Center officially opened its doors in November 1991. The Center started small---one staff person (an Executive Director) working out of one room (the First Aid office on the Coosa Valley Fairground). Over the years, the Center has grown and expanded to 7 full-time employees and their office is now located in the Serve Rome building at 202 East Third Avenue.

The Exchange Club Family Resource Center provides transformative in-home education and support to families, enabling them to create safe, stable and nurturing homes so that their children can grow and thrive. The Center helps families use evidence-based Exchange Parent Aide program to help families strengthen their parenting skills, budgeting skills, and connect with healthy support systems. Learn more about the program and how they help more than 55 families each month (impacting over 90 parents and almost 200 children) by visiting their website at www.frcrome.org or calling 706-290-0764 for more information.

Office Hours:

During Fair week – Oct. 3– Oct. 7, 2023

Open Tuesday – Friday, 5 – 9 p.m.

Also Open Sunday, Oct. 8 2023, 1 – 4 p.m.

NOTE CAREFULLY:

In the event circumstances beyond our control disrupt our planned schedules so as to necessitate curtailment of activities and operations, the Fair Association reserves the right and the exhibitor agrees to pro-rate premium and prize money herein cataloged on the basis of actual conditions existing from such causes before or during the period of the fair.

1. Exhibits are judged by comparison and on a competitive basis. Where there is only one article exhibited under any class number, a first prize award cannot be given. In this instance, if the article is meritorious, second prize money will be paid.

2. Premiums will not be paid according to ribbons but by awards shown in the Judges' record books. Ribbons do not always mean money prizes, and they may sometimes be attached through mistake or may be misplaced or lost.
THE JUDGES' RECORD IS THE ONLY GUIDE FOR PAYING CASH AWARDS.

NOTE TO EXHIBITORS:

Premium awards are paid by check at the Premium Awards Office at the fair-ground. Statements may be checked against entry ticket stubs for accuracy. General Rules and Guidelines

The Coosa Valley Fair Livestock committee has the right to combine classes. Only animals that are participating in livestock shows are allowed in the barns/barn area.

Each exhibitor must furnish their own feed, feed pan, water pail, and show supplies. The fair will furnish the bedding, electric power, water supply and wash racks. It is the responsibility of each exhibitor to feed, water, clean-up after their animals, and provide the general care for their animals while at the fair. Veterinarian service for all animals, while at the fair, will be made available at the owner's expense. The fair will not be responsible for loss or damage to any exhibit, and will give the best care and attention to prevent loss or damage. There will be only junior showmanship classes. Classes will be determined by grade level. There will be an open show following all junior shows, respectively. All entries shall be classified immediately upon arrival and classification cannot be changed.

Coosa Valley Fair Pee Wee Showmanship

There will be a Pee Wee showmanship show for Prek 4 - 4th grade students in between each breeding/market class, respectively. There is no entry fee, and only ribbon placings will be awarded. Please be prepared to accompany children into the ring if needed.

Health Regulations

No animals will be allowed entry onto the fairgrounds without the proper health records and test requirements. All livestock may be subject to health inspection by an Official State Veterinarian. All animals being exhibited in any type of livestock show (local, county, area, district, or state) must have an official certificate of veterinary inspection (health certificate). This certificate of veterinary inspection must be issued within 30 days of the exhibition - with the exception of 4-H and FFA shows. See the current Georgia 4-H and FFA State Livestock Shows Rules and Regulations for specific information for 4-H and FFA health certificates. All other livestock exhibitors must follow rules and regulations as outlined in the "Health Requirement for Exhibition of Livestock in Georgia," revised October 7, 2003, from the Georgia Department of Agriculture.

DIVISION I PORCELAIN ART EXHIBIT 2023

(Sponsored by The Rome Area Porcelain Art Guild, Leona Clements Chapter)

1st Place $10; 2nd Place $7; 3rd Place $5; HM $3

ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED THE SUNDAY PRIOR TO THE FAIR DATES, FROM 1:00 UNTIL 2:00. EXHIBITORS SHOULD PICK UP THEIR WORK ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON FOLLOWING THE CLOSE OF THE FAIR FROM 1:00 TO 3:00.

Exhibitors may enter a maximum of two entries in any one class as long as each entry is different, e.g. in "Naturalistic" one could enter a tray and a vase with the same subject OR 2 vases with different subjects. A framed piece that consists of multiple pieces of china will be considered as one item and judged as a whole; the pieces in the framed piece should be like subject matter such as all naturalistic florals. For all entries, the primary focus is to be on painting and porcelain techniques (such as luster, structure, incising, gold work). Additional decoration which is not fired onto the entry is not to be the focus of the piece and is to be kept to a minimum. All entries must be of porcelain, except where glass is indicated; stoneware mugs will be accepted; all other will be disqualified. Decal work will also be disqualified.

Entries must be the personal work of the exhibitor and must have a fired signature for competition. Where sets are entered, each piece must have fired signature. 'Sets' is considered as one entry and must be a set such as a tea set, etc., not just more of the same. No 'Seminar' pieces can be entered.

Exhibitor's signature must be neatly concealed for judging. Each entry must be securely fastened together. Any shape, any size; in all categories unless otherwise stated. Display stands will be furnished by the Guild.

Entries can be entered only one time for competition and should have been painted within the last year. Every precaution will be taken to protect exhibits, but no responsibility will be assumed by The Coosa Valley Fair Association or the Porcelain Art Guild, Leona Clements Chapter, for damage or theft.

If necessary, the Fair Chairman, designated by the Porcelain Art Guild, reserves the right to create a class (subclass) with the approval of The Coosa Valley Fair Association. Only judges, clerks, fair chairman and elected officers of the Porcelain Art Guild will be allowed in the exhibition area during acceptance of entries, judging and dismantling. The Clerk, if possible, will be the 'Best in Show' winner from the previous year since this Honoree will have a display of her work rather than entering the competition.

THE EXHIBITOR IS RESPONSIBLE FOR DECIDING WHICH CLASS AN ENTRY IS TO BE PLACED IN; ENTRIES WILL NOT BE CHANGED FROM THE CLASS THAT WAS SPECIFIED BY THE EXHIBITOR.

Judging Criteria for China:		Points
Creativity:	Being created rather than imitated	20
Design, Composition and Balance:	Arrangement, proportion, even distribution, weight	20
Perspective, Depth, and Distance:	Spatial relation as appears to the eye; depth, distance	20
Contrast, Values, and Intensity	Difference between light and dark sections as well as in color	20
Aesthetic Appeal:	Pleasing in appearance; pleasurable to senses	20

All decisions of the judges will be final. If there is only one entry in a class or lot, that item must be judged. Judges have the right to award one or more Honorable Mention Awards (4th Place).

Best in Section will be awarded to each exhibitor in Sections II, III and IV scoring the highest number of points in any class of that section. 'Best In Section' is awarded a ribbon and $25.
